

Getting Started Guide for: myrimis

myrimis Introduction:

myrimis secure place on earth is the most comprehensive location-based-social-network offered today on personal computers and mobile-phones.

Set up your own "secure place on earth" including family-members, friends, pets and assets like cars, boats, home - and create innovative services like virtual-caring for persons, pets, home and car security and control.

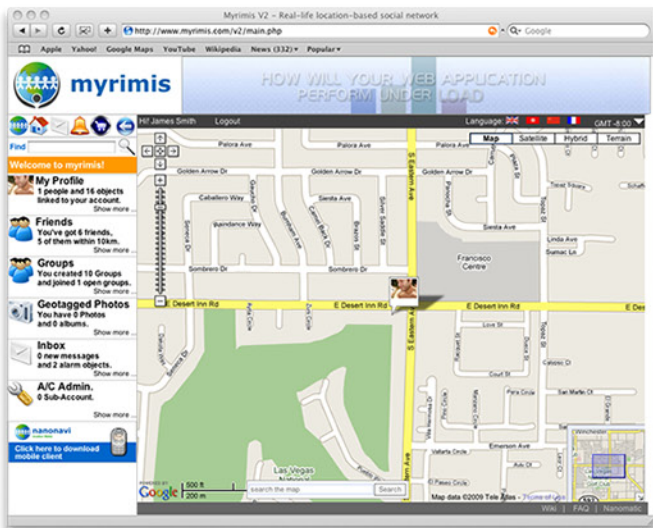

Register and Login Here

Registration and Login:

Simply sign-up for free and login from myrimis.com

For enterprise and corporate users. You can visit myrimis.com/secure for more information.

Basic Operations:

After login, You will see some basic functions from the left hand side.

Starting from top menu icons:

"myrimis" logo - you can quickly change your locations, read your friends updated locations and blogs, read most popular information groups and recent albums uploads from your friends or public.

Home - Back to the main screen.

Message - you can read and send text and location based messages from here, as well as accept friends messages.

Alarm - Receive nanofinder status and message, as well as the tracking records.

Shopping Cart - shortcuts to nanostore to purchases nanofinder and/or download nanonavi. This can help you to keep your track records. For more information, please visit the site for more information.

Wildcats Search Functions - Type any place or friends you want to find and the results will be shows on the right hand side of the system.

The main menu:

My Profile - From here you can view and edit your profile settings. As well as the account settings like changing password and privacy settings (Choose visible data).

Friends - List all of your friends by name and distance, and also add and remove friends.

Groups - List all of your own and your friends groups with all the point of interest. Basic group administration also included like create or remove a group, add and remove group members and edit group properties.

Geotagged Photos - List all of albums and photos uploaded by you, your friends and public. You can uploads photos from there too. If your camera or camera photo support GPS functions, the system will also automatically read your coordinating information and locate the photo on the map.

Inbox - Same as message icon functions

A/C Admin - This functions is only used for enterprise account only.